If you are a Mathematics Undergraduate Student in the middle of your degree, you may be eligible for a research bursary. Available each summer, for a 6-8 week period, the Bursaries will enable students with research potential to experience how a career in scientific research can benefit them.

For details of the Scheme, including eligibility, information for applicants and how to apply, visit: www.lms.ac.uk/grants/undergraduate-research-bursaries