The meeting forms part of a workshop on Dynamical systems, ergodic theory and applications from 23-24 June 2016. There will be talks on Thursday morning and all day Friday with plenary lectures from Ian Melbourne and Dejun Feng.

For further details visit: <http://personalpages.manchester.ac.uk/staff/jonathan.fraser/LMSregionalmeeting16.html> or contact the organisers. (Jonathan Fraser; jon.fraser32@gmail.com)

There are funds available to contribute in part to the expenses of members of the Society or research students to attend the meeting and workshop. Requests for support, including an estimate of expenses, may be addressed to the organisers.

The London Mathematical Society is the UK's learned society for mathematics. Founded in 1865 for the promotion and extension of mathematical knowledge, the Society has a membership of over 2500 drawn from all parts of the UK and overseas. Its principal activities are the organisation of meetings and conferences, publication of journals and books, provision of financial support for mathematical activities, and contribution to public debates on issues related to mathematics, research and education.
