LMS Early Career Fellowships 2023-24 Application Form

Applicant's Details

The LMS Early Career Fellowships are partially supported by Heilbronn Institute for Mathematical Research (HIMR) through the UKRI/EPSRC Additional Funding Programme for Mathematical Sciences.

LMS Early Career Fellowships should serve as a useful bridge between finishing a PhD and moving on to a further position, in which the holder can collaborate with and learn from people they haven't worked with before and start new research projects. There is no expectation that grant holders should move institution, indeed applicants are encouraged to think carefully about the logistics if they plan to move, given that securing accommodation for six months can be time consuming and expensive. Nevertheless, the Selection Committee does want to see a concrete plan for collaborating outside of the applicant's current institution and becoming more widely known within their discipline. The Committee also wants to see that serious thought has been given to the applicant's employment once the LMS fellowship ends. Finally, applicants are advised to think carefully about their choice of mentor and for both parties to have clear expectations about how often they will meet.

Please refer to the accompanying Guidelines and Conditions of Award before completing this form; this information is available on the website: www.lms.ac.uk/grants/lms-early-career-fellowships. If you have any queries, please contact Chair of the Early Career Research Committee on fellowships@lms.ac.uk to discuss your application.

The application form should be submitted by the closing date on 14 January 2024.
Privacy Statement

The London Mathematical Society (LMS) is a registered charity for the advancement, dissemination and promotion of mathematics in the UK and worldwide. Data provided by you on this form will be stored securely and used under the lawful bases "Contract" and "Legitimate Interests" in relation to your application, and if successful, your Early Career Fellowship grant. If successful and if you have indicated that you would like to receive an additional scholarship, which is funded by HIMR, your details will be shared with HIMR. You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data that we carry out and the right to access any of your personal data held by the LMS. For further information about how the LMS processes personal data, please see the LMS Privacy Notice.

Referees' Details

Two referees are required:

- one of which would normally be from the applicant's PhD supervisor and should be emailed by the referee directly to the LMS (fellowships@lms.ac.uk) by the closing date;
- one of which should be from an academic outside the applicant's home institution (meaning the institution of PhD study), with whom the applicant intends to collaborate during the fellowship. This letter should include information about the academic merit of the proposed research. If the applicant intends to hold the fellowship at a host institution that is different from their home institution, the letter should be from an academic at the host institution. If the applicant intends to remain based at their home institution throughout the fellowship, the letter should also include a brief plan of in-person visits to support the research project. This letter should be attached in the composite document that is submitted with the application form.
